Nasr Polo Steals the Show at PETEX Exhibition 2025

The first day 31st January, 2025

The PETEX Exhibition 2025, held at HITEX from January 31st to February 2nd, proved to be a remarkable event, gathering pet enthusiasts and animal lovers from all corners of the city. The opening day, January 31st, set the tone for the entire exhibition, with its grand inauguration and a breathtaking array of animals on display. But one particular exhibit stood out among the rest – Nasr Polo.

Nasr Polo, known for its exceptional breeding and training of majestic polo horses, captured the spotlight with its stunning showcase. The display featured some of the finest polo horses, their grace and power leaving attendees in awe. Visitors were treated to live demonstrations that highlighted the elegance and skill involved in the world of polo. The horses, with their striking presence, proved to be both a visual delight and an educational experience for all.

Apart from the horses, Nasr Polo's engaging activities created an interactive experience for attendees. Polo enthusiasts had the opportunity to get up close and personal with the horses, learning about the intricacies of polo as well as the care and training that go into nurturing these magnificent animals. The team at Nasr Polo offered detailed insights into the sport, showcasing its rich history and its modern-day appeal, which captivated both seasoned fans and newcomers to the sport.

The success of Nasr Polo at PETEX is a testament to the growing interest in equestrian sports and the appreciation for the animals that make these sports possible. The exhibit not only demonstrated the beauty and grace of polo horses but also helped in fostering a deeper connection between the public and the equestrian world.

Our Vision for the Future

Nasr Polo is not just about competition; it is about fostering a lifelong passion for equestrian sports. We believe in providing young riders with the resources, mentorship, and competitive exposure they need to succeed. As we host this prestigious event, our vision remains clear – to make Hyderabad and Nasr Polo a premier hub for equestrian sports in India.

Equestrianism is more than a sport; it is a discipline that teaches patience, dedication, and respect for one's equine partner. We invite riders, enthusiasts, and the community to witness and support this incredible journey. As the riders take center stage at Nasr Polo, we celebrate their determination and the bright future of Indian equestrian sports.

Welcome to Nasr Polo – where passion meets excellence!

Grace and Precision on Display at National Junior Equestrian Dressage Qualifiers

The National Junior Equestrian Qualifying Event on 22nd February 2025 provided a platform for young riders to display their skills across multiple equestrian disciplines, with dressage taking center stage on the first day of the competition. Held under the auspices of the Equestrian Federation of India (EFI), the event saw top talent competing in the Children 1 (CH1), Children 2 (CH2), Young Riders, and Junior Riders categories, all aiming for a spot in the National Equestrian Championship.

The dressage competition featured riders showcasing their precision, control, and harmony with their horses as they navigated the intricate movements required. Each rider was tested on their ability to execute various dressage patterns, emphasizing the bond between horse and rider. The level of competition was exceptional, with riders displaying impressive technical skills and poise.

One of the highlights of the event was the performance of young rider Aiza Mir, an EFI athlete, who impressed the judges with her exceptional grace and control. Riding Delano, Aiza's performance stood out for its seamless execution and attention to detail, earning her a well-deserved place in the National Equestrian Championship.

The dressage event was meticulously judged by Colonel Dushyant Bali and Colonel S.L. Reddy, both of whom brought years of experience and expertise to ensure fair and thorough evaluation of each rider's performance. Their discerning eye helped to highlight the incredible talent on display.

Overall, the 22nd February dressage event was a true showcase of the future of Indian equestrian sports, with promising riders from all categories setting the stage for future success in national and international competitions.

Riders Compete for Glory at Republic Day Show Jumping Championship

The Republic Day Show Jumping Championship 2025, hosted by Nasr Polo, kicked off on February 22nd in grand style at the picturesque Nasr Polo grounds in Janwada. Set on the silica arena, the event brought together equestrian talents from across the region for an exciting display of skill and precision in show jumping.

The competition featured a wide range of participants, from young riders to seasoned professionals, all vying for top honors in various categories. The Republic Day Show Jumping competition was the centerpiece of the event, offering multiple jump categories including 45cm, 60cm, 80cm, 100cm, 110cm, and 120cm, designed to challenge riders of different age groups and skill levels. Riders under 10, under 16, and open categories all showcased remarkable talent, highlighting the diverse and growing interest in equestrian sports in India.

One of the most notable aspects of the competition was the level of skill demonstrated by many of the young riders, some of whom are just beginning their equestrian journeys. Their impressive performances were a testament to the bright future of Indian equestrian sports.

The event concluded with a memorable medal ceremony on the final day, where the winners were awarded their accolades by the CEO of Nasr Polo, Mir Hafeezuddin Ahmed. The ceremony marked the successful conclusion of this phase of the championship and celebrated the dedication, hard work, and passion of all the participants.

Overall, the Republic Day Show Jumping Championship 2025 was a thrilling event that showcased the immense talent within India's equestrian community, setting the stage for even greater success in future competitions.

"Young Equestrians Shine at National Junior Qualifying Event"

"Aiza Mir's Flawless Performance Highlights Junior Equestrian Qualifiers"

The National Junior Equestrian Qualifying Event, held on 22nd February 2025, was a significant highlight of the equestrian calendar, bringing together some of the country's brightest young talents. Organized by the Equestrian Federation of India (EFI), the event provided an opportunity for young riders to showcase their skills in various disciplines, with a strong focus on show jumping and dressage. One of the standout moments of the competition took place in the Show Jumping categories for Children 1 (CH1) and Children 2 (CH2) on the Silica Grounds.

The show jumping event featured an array of riders from equestrian clubs across the nation, all vying for a coveted spot in the National Equestrian Championship. The competitive spirit was palpable, with each rider pushing themselves to deliver their best. The technicality of the course, designed to challenge the riders' agility and precision, tested the limits of both horse and rider. However, the young athletes showed incredible determination and skill, successfully navigating the challenging jumps with great finesse.

Aiza Mir, an EFI rider with ID P103411, emerged as one of the event's most impressive performers. Riding her horse, Delano, Aiza delivered a flawless round in the CH1 category, earning a well-deserved spot at the National Equestrian Championship. Her poise, skill, and confidence on horseback made her performance a highlight of the event, signaling the bright future of Indian equestrian sports.

The event was judged by two esteemed figures in the equestrian community, Colonel Dushyant Bali and Colonel S.L. Reddy, whose expertise ensured a fair and thorough evaluation of the riders' performances. Their guidance and professionalism were pivotal in making the event a success.

Overall, the National Junior Equestrian Qualifying Event was an unforgettable experience for all participants, with the CH1 and CH2 show jumping competitions serving as an exhilarating display of talent and potential for future champions.

Nasr Polo Hosts Fierce Competition in EFI National Qualifier Show Jumping

The second day of the highly anticipated Equestrian Federation of India (EFI) National Qualifier 2025, hosted by Nasr Polo, took place on February 23rd, 2025, at the scenic Nasr Polo grounds in Janwada. The event showcased the finest equestrian talent from across the region, with a thrilling display of skill, precision, and determination in show jumping.

The competition featured young riders and seasoned professionals, competing in various categories, with a particular focus on the Young Riders and Junior Show Jumping events. The show jumping categories included 45cm, 60cm, 80cm, 100cm, 110cm, and 120cm jumps, catering to riders from under 10 years old to under 16 years old, as well as open categories for more experienced competitors.

Riders demonstrated incredible skill and determination as they navigated the challenging courses set out for them. For many, this competition was a stepping stone in their equestrian careers, and the level of talent displayed, particularly among the younger participants, was truly impressive. Many riders, still early in their equestrian journeys, showed great promise, signaling a bright future for Indian equestrian sports.

The event was a testament to the growing interest in equestrianism in India, as more and more young riders push the boundaries of their abilities. The range of categories offered allowed for a dynamic and exciting day of competition, showcasing both the raw talent and the hard work that these riders have put into their training.

Overall, the second day of the EFI National Qualifier 2025 was an exhilarating success, reflecting the growth and potential of the equestrian community in India.

Republic Day Polo Cup 2025 - A Thrilling Competition and a Memorable Finale

The much-awaited Republic Day Polo Cup 2025 kicked off with great enthusiasm on the evening of February 8th at the picturesque Nasr Polo Silica Ground. The tournament saw a thrilling display of skill, strategy, and sportsmanship as three formidable teams- Telangana State Polo Team, Hyderabad City Polo Team, and Cyberabad Polo Team- competed fiercely for the coveted title. The event was a resounding success, showcasing the rich tradition of polo in the region and providing spectators with a spectacle that they will not forget anytime soon.

The Prelims: A Close Call for the Teams

The opening matches on February 8th set the stage for an intense competition. The teams of Telangana, Hyderabad, and Cyberabad were determined to make their mark and advance to the final. The Telangana State Polo Team kicked off the evening with a solid performance, scoring a total of 6 goals (3+3). However, their efforts fell short in comparison to the performances of Hyderabad and Cyberabad, who both had impressive scores.

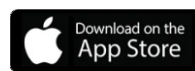

Hyderabad City Polo Team, with its well-coordinated players and skillful strategy, managed to score 7 goals (6+1), edging out Telangana by a narrow margin. The standout players for Hyderabad included Peggy Lejeune, Pavan Somepally, and Mama Khan, whose precise passes and excellent teamwork led them to the finals.

National Qualifier Games Camp Closes on a High Note at Nasr Polo Livery Yard

The Equestrian Federation of India (EFI) National Qualifier Games camp at Nasr Polo concluded on February 24th, 2025, with a successful and impactful closing at the Livery Yard in Nasr Polo. This marked the end of a significant phase in the lead-up to the National Equestrian Championship, bringing together aspiring riders from all over the country for an intense and rewarding training experience.

The camp, which took place at the prestigious Nasr Polo grounds in Janwada, focused on refining the skills and techniques of the riders, preparing them for the high-stakes competitions that lie ahead. It catered to a wide range of riders, from those in the early stages of their equestrian journeys to seasoned athletes looking to fine-tune their performance.

Throughout the camp, riders were immersed in a combination of intensive training sessions, drills, and personalized coaching under the guidance of experienced instructors and professional riders. The camp's curriculum covered everything from basic riding techniques to advanced show jumping and dressage skills. Riders had the opportunity to train on various aspects of horsemanship, including horse care, fitness, and technique, ensuring a holistic approach to their preparation.

One of the key highlights of the camp was the emphasis on personalized attention. Riders had the chance to work closely with top trainers, who provided valuable insights and feedback, helping them overcome challenges and enhance their riding abilities. The final day of the camp saw an exciting demonstration of the skills developed over the course of the training sessions, with riders showcasing their progress in a series of mock competitions.

Mir Hafeezuddin Ahmed, CEO of Nasr Polo, expressed his pride in the success of the camp, noting that Nasr Polo continues to provide world-class training facilities and coaching to help shape the future of Indian equestrian sports. "This camp has been a tremendous opportunity for young riders to develop their skills and gain valuable experience, and we are proud to be a part of their journey," said Mir Ahmed.

As the camp came to a close, riders and coaches reflected on the tremendous progress made. The event not only helped fine-tune the riders' skills but also instilled a sense of camaraderie among participants, fostering a strong sense of community within the equestrian world.

TSEA Annual General Meeting 2025 at Nasr Polo

The Telangana State Equestrian Association (TSEA) successfully hosted its Annual General Meeting (AGM) at Nasr Polo, Hyderabad, on 1st February, 2025 bringing together key stakeholders, athletes, coaches, and equestrian enthusiasts to discuss the future of the sport in the state. The event served as a vital platform for engaging discussions on the development of equestrian sports, upcoming training programs, and initiatives to support riders at all levels.

Key Highlights of the AGM

- The meeting began with an overview of the progress made in 2024, highlighting achievements in show jumping, dressage, tent pegging, and endurance riding. Discussions centered around:
- Expanding Training Opportunities: Plans to introduce structured training programs for riders of all levels, from beginners to elite competitors, ensuring Telangana produces top-tier equestrian athletes.
- Competition Calendar for 2025: Finalizing an exciting lineup of competitions at various levels, including state, national, and EFI-recognized events, to provide riders with ample opportunities to compete and excel.

A Thriving Future for Equestrian Sports in Telangana

As Telangana emerges as a growing hub for equestrian sports, TSEA remains committed to fostering excellence in show jumping, dressage, tent pegging, and other disciplines. With a dynamic roadmap for 2025, the association aims to raise awareness, inspire participation, and create a strong ecosystem for the sport to flourish.
